

The Specialist from our High Grade Modular System

MANKENBERG

New!

large handwheel
simple operation, also with gloves, in hazardous situations

1

sealed stem no high breakaway torque of the handwheel also after long downtime

6

combined pressure reducing and shut-off valve
only one valve needed

7

balanced cone
good regulating accuracy, independent from counter-
pressure

8

all medium contact parts made of Titanium Grade 2
extremely high corrosion resistance

2

deep-drawn body of Titanium short delivery times, low weight

3

Mankenberg clamp system easy-to-maintain

4

adjusting screw as a function of display
non-varying installation height, function externally visible

5

30° angle at the outlet side optimal hose routing

9

a wide variety of connection types: Storz system, BS 336... no further adapter required

10

with spring pack arranged in parallel
low overall height

11

Pressure Regulating Hydrant Valve for Sea Water (Pressure Reducing Valve with Manual Shut-off Function) DM 668E